

Spey Casting School for Arctic Char

Victoria Island, Nunavut, Canada

August 16 -19, 2012

Trip Description:

Our Northern Spey School for Arctic Char has runs of over 50,000 bright silvery and aggressive Char. 300 miles past the Arctic Circle, the only vegetation here is low shrubs and lots of beautiful green lichen and NO BUGS. When one visits this area one truly has the sensation of being on top of the world.

Itinerary:

Day 1: Arrival from Cambridge Bay - Camp Flight. Upon arrival at camp, the manager-owner will welcome you followed by the issuing of fishing licenses and a presentation of your upcoming itinerary. In the afternoon, you are free to fish.

Day 2 & 3: Two days of intensive Spey Casting Instruction and lots of Arctic Char action

Day 4: Return to Cambridge Bay after a hearty farewell breakfast.

$5995.00 USD (plus taxes)

Price Includes:

- Guided fishing one on two
- Deluxe accommodations
- All meals with wine and beer
- Transportation from Salta Airport to Lodge and from Lodge to River
- Fishing Licenses

Not included:

Personal gear, alcoholic drinks besides wine or beer and tipping at your discretion

The Ekaluk River is the perfect river for the Spey Caster, fast and wide. The Arctic Char are aggressive and coupled with their raw power and the fast current a 13'-15' spey rod is the ideal tool. The common weights 10 to 12 lbs with trophy fish over 16 lbs caught daily. Char can be caught in several different ways including on a skated dry fly or a greased muddler but their favorites are streamers tied on number 2 traditional salmon spey fly hooks.

Fishing for Char takes place in on the Ekaluk River. The Char migrate up river 3 kilometers to Ferguson Lake where they'll spawn and winter. There are no mosquitoes or black flies, daily temperature mid 50's, comfortable solid heated cabins and delicious home cooked gourmet meals. The small window of opportunity to fish for Char takes place the last week of August. Space is limited to only 12 students/anglers per week and we book a year in advance. Ekaluk River Char are strong and beefy, expect to hook dozens of fish each day and everyone will take you into the backing before you can say, "Fish on!" How many of these mighty fish you'll actually land depends upon how good of an angler you are.

"This is not a one fish a day river, when you've been here you'll know how far from the truth that is and how close to heaven you've been!"

Breakaway Classic Adventures
P.O. Box 442
Ellicottville, New York 14731
(716) 699-4835
www.breakawayclassicadventures.com
indrek@breakawayclassicadventures.com