

The Salmon Express to Matapédia, Québec

Weekly June 1, 2011 – September 30, 2011
$2905.00 CDN (plus taxes)

Trip Description:

The abundance of giant Atlantic salmon in the magnificent Matapédia and Restigouche rivers have elevated the town of Matapédia to the Salmon Capital of the World. The Matapédia and Restigouche rivers have for over a century attracted the world's financial, political, and show business elite to our small village, including Princess Louise,

King Edward VII, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, Bing Crosby, and most U.S. Presidents. These two world renowned large salmon rivers have always produced more salmon than any other in the province.

Itinerary:

"À LA CARTE" meals, personal gear, alcoholic drinks, fishing licenses and tipping at your discretion

The first Restigouche Hotel was built in 1906 by J. Albert Dubé on the banks of the Restigouche River, at the meeting point of the Matapédia and Restigouche. The new Restigouche Hotel was built in 1972 by Roger Dubé, son of Albert Dubé and owner since 1944. It was renovated in 1989 by its present owner Pete Dubé, son of Roger Dubé, with the establishment since 1962

The lodge, which is located where the magnificent Restigouche and Matapédia rivers meet, at 100 m from highway 132, offers its clients royal comfort in a exclusive setting, very friendly staff, and a renowned restaurant that serves meals fit for kings and queens! All our guides are completely bilingual and have the experience and know-how to ensure the best possible chance of success, whether for hunting or fishing.

Breakfast, Lunch and Supper is served in our dining room. The dining room with its cozy and luxurious fishing-camp atmosphere, our regional salmon and wild fruit pies will delight you. Our very friendly staff offers you the experience and the know-how that assures you of a meal of full quality and excellent memory.

Anglers select each meal from the menu "À LA CARTE" and can pay each slip separately or have it charged to the room.
